Honoring Former Chairman for Years of Service

"Everyone has a full family life, ministry life, and work life. It is not that God does not want to move, but rather He will not force Himself on the planet! When we leave a margin for God to move, we are in sync with Scripture that reminds us that we may plan, but God establishes!"
(Proverbs 16:9)
~ Matt Chambers

"A refreshing and blessed gathering of the Saints... With a seamless transition of leadership. Altogether a sky-high experience in a mile-high city!! It sure was a blessing for Ruth and me. Your friendship is matchless, always. We love you and highly respect you!" ~ Julius Morar

NOVEMBER 2021

2021 IMA National Conference Recap

"Dr. Brassfield was very inspirational with his messages and making new acquaintances was the outstanding thing for me." ~ Mike McCord

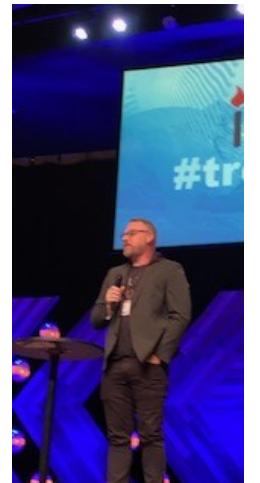

"One thing I heard over and over at this year's IMA Conference was 'This was the best National Conference yet!' I share in that assessment! A personal highlight was that my whole family was able to attend (as well as my brother's family). This was made possible by our gracious host church who provided childcare for every session. So not only was I blessed this year, but my whole family was blessed." ~ Matthew Bell

National Board & District Chairs

"It was a blessing to be able to attend the 2021 IMA Conference in Denver, CO. The fellowship was tremendous and enjoyable. The ministry spoke to us about the times we are living in and how to be what we are called to be—Salt and Light."
~ Joe Campbell

"The IMA 2021 National Conference was a tremendous blessing this year. My spirit was deeply strengthened by the Word and by the opportunity to fellowship with the fellow ministers of the same heart and calling." ~ Jason King

"I was encouraged by what I saw the Lord doing at the National Conference. We witnessed the emerging of a new generation of leaders, all made possible by the strong heritage of the IMA. It is a blessing to see the generations honoring one another." ~ Chad Hayes

"The messages and breakout sessions were inspirational and relevant to address my current affairs. I am looking forward to what God started at the conference." ~ Derek Nett

"What a joy it was for the IMA to gather together in Arvada, CO, this year! It always feels like a family reunion. Every part of this year's conference was refreshing, enriching, and powerful. I'm thankful for all the services, sessions, worship moments, and conversations! We are truly blessed to be a part of the great heritage and the newness of what God is doing in and through the IMA! The best days are yet to come!" ~ Paul Mason

"First of all, I would say that the whole church was very hospitable, and that Pastor King did a great job welcoming the district members. Being new to the association, I thought he did quite well. More than anything, I noticed a changing of the guard sort of speak in those that were in attendance. A lot of our main stays for many years I did not see, and I saw overall a younger group. I have been a member for 22 years now and have been to most of the National Conferences, so I have a pretty good idea of who comes and who does not. Overall, I thought the conference went well. Pastor Juszak did a tremendous job on his morning session. What stood out to me more than anything else was your final address! It really spoke to my heart, thank you Pastor Tim!" ~ Reg Myers

"The conference was very practical with tangible 'take home' thoughts. There's a fresh, vibrant, life-giving wind blowing in IMA. In such turbulent times, it was so good to come together to encourage one another and be refreshed." ~ Tom Couture

"IMA history amazes me. I enjoyed you sharing, trending with four young pastors on fire. Also, how IMA is affecting the world through various ministries. One speaker shared 'was it worth it?' It's been worth it." ~ Jerry Rodriguez

"What a pleasure to be surrounded by our brothers and sisters in Christ while attending the National IMA Conference. We felt nurtured and loved by the unity of our brotherhood. There is truly no judgement among God's people; only those who care, those who pray, those who encourage, and those who love. There are not enough beautiful words to say how refreshing the conference was for us. Many thanks to all who made it happen." ~ Julie & James Wells

Conf. Theme: "Encountering God"

"Three takeaways I was blessed with at our 2021 National IMA Conference: Anointed Worship, Powerful Preaching, and Great Fellowship." ~ Sean Dudley

"For the first conference to be held in their church, the staff did an outstanding job making sure that we were welcomed with open arms. The praise and worship were amazing! I loved the breakout sessions for the ladies, it allowed us time to share and bond with each other. And lastly, it was great to see some beautiful country and the mountains that God blessed us with to enjoy." ~ Lenny Dudley

"Every time we gather at National Conference it is like a homecoming and a big family reunion. I love the fellowship with my brothers and sisters in the IMA. It is always so rich and life-giving. This year, I am very appreciative of the time we had as sisters in Christ to connect specifically, to encourage and build one another up in our faith. The breakout and lunch were powerful, and for me personally it was a joy to serve with other ladies in preparing these two sessions. There is great joy that can only be realized when you serve alongside God's people. I am thankful for the messages of Dr. Brassfield and will remember two statements in particular, 'be addicted to grace' and 'circle the promise instead of circling the problem.'

There are so many things to reflect on and be appreciative for. I am thankful for the wonderful leadership and direction for the future of IMA and all its members, and the beautiful way honor is given to those who have served and those coming in to carry the torch forward. That is precious and powerful. It's a great model to follow in our ministries. I am thankful to experience each church who hosts and their communities. I love that uniqueness with every conference-the flavor we taste given off by the host church, pastor, and local community. This year was exceptional in that regard. Personally, I am thankful my husband could attend with me! That made this year extra special that he could experience IMA, the love of brothers and sisters, and the encouragement to have a better understanding of why I love it so much." ~ Karrie Landsverk
